HEBREWS PLAN FOR NEW YEAR HOLIDAY

Adas Israel Congregation to Engage Rabbi and Have Dual Service.

In all Hebrew congregations, preparations are being made for the observance of the new year holidays which will commence September 30.

The Adas Israel Congregation, Sixth and I streets northwest, have decided to secure the services of a rabbi, a graduate of the Theological Seminary of New York. The congregation has also made preparations for a dual service in order to accommodate many worshippers who have been compelled heretofore to attend at rented halls or to remain from services entirely from lack of seating accommodations. By conducting a duplicate service in the vestry of the synagogue at the same time of the observation of services in the main auditorium, the congregation of Adas Israel is supplying a long felt want. Many members of the congregation have already shown enthusiasm over this purpose innovation.

"Christian Irrigation"
Is Topic for Sermon

Epworth League in Charge

The evening service at Douglas Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, Eleventh and H streets northeast, tomorrow, will be in charge of the Epworth League of the District. W. A. Morris and Andrew Gross will be the leaders. After the regular topic, Mr. Morris will tell of the wonderful progress of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Philippines Islands, which was elected by the District League while Mr. Morris was president of that organization.

WILL TELL OF WAR'S MANIFOLD HORRORS

European Conflict Basis for
Sermon at Waugh Church
Tomorrow Evening.

"The Nobler Warfare" is the topic upon which the Rev. F. M. McCoy, pastor of Waugh Methodist Episcopal Church, Thirteenth and A streets northeast, will preach at the 7:30 o'clock service tomorrow evening. In this sermon, Dr. McCoy will contrast the horrors of warfare; bringing out that these horrors are not confined to death on the battlefield, but include disease, hunger, exposure to extreme weather conditions, and other hardships.

"Churches, societies and philanthropists are now endeavoring to lessen this manner of suffering," says Dr. McCoy, "which is brought about through the jealousy and ambition of the monarchs of these warring nations." In the morning, his subject will be "The Christian's Calling," which will also dwell on the horrors of war.

At the meeting of the Foreign Mission Society of Waugh Church Thursday evening, Dr. McCoy spoke of the 1,000,000 persons in the world and the responsibility for misery among the millions that are not Christians.

Mrs. E. L. Ripley, spoke of work among the young people in the congregation who have formed a class known as the "Little Light Bearers."

The class now numbers 125 members. Miss Mary Simpson, chairman of the Junior King's Herald Society; Mrs. George W. Keln, chairman of the Senior King's Herald Society; Miss Lily Jett, and Mrs. Charles F. Wood, were among the others who spoke.

Mrs. M. M. Mitchell, president of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of Waugh Church, will speak at a meeting of the Home Missionary Society next Thursday.

Church Notes.

"Why He Kept Company with a Corn Crib," is the topic upon which the Rev. E. H. Swann, pastor of the Centennial Baptist Church, Eighth and I streets northwest, will preach at the 8 o'clock evening service tomorrow. At the 11 o'clock morning service, he will speak on "Lessons Learned by Living."

The Rev. T. C. Skinner, of Richmond, Va., will supply the pulpit of Calvary Baptist Church, Eighth and I streets northeast tomorrow at the 11 o'clock service. He will continue to hold all its regular services throughout the summer months.

"The City and the Tower" is the subject upon which the Rev. Herbert Booth Smith, of Knoxville, Tenn., will speak from the pulpit of New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. In his sermon, Dr. Smith will outline the development of church and state along a definite routine of progress from the Tower of Babel.

Adjutant Mark Newman, of Philadelphia, will conduct the services for the next two weeks at the Salvation Army tent, Eleventh and C streets southeast. These services are being held nightly, except Saturdays and Sundays, at 8 o'clock, and are well attended. On Saturdays and Mondays the services are held at the Salvation Army Hall, 30 Pennsylvania avenue northwest.

The Rev. S. Townsend Weaver will preach at the Epworth League service at Douglas Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, Eleventh and H streets northeast, tomorrow, will be in charge of the Epworth League of the District. W. A. Morris and Andrew Gross will be the leaders. After the regular topic, Mr. Morris will tell of the wonderful progress of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Philippines Islands, which was elected by the District League while Mr. Morris was president of that organization.

Owing to the absence of the Rev. K. Hardin, pastor of the Mt. Vernon Place Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Ninth and K streets northwest, who is spending his vacation at Chester, S. C., the morning service at Mt. Vernon Place Church will be conducted by the Rev.

Memorial Day Founder

MALDEN, Mass., Aug. 22.—Mrs. Mary Cotton Redpath, credited with having been the originator of Memorial Day observances, is dead at the age of ninety-one years.

When in Charleston, S. C., in 1865, Mrs. Redpath noted that the graves of Union soldiers were uncared for, and with the cooperation of the military authorities and numerous Southern residents she planned a parade, which marched to the cemetery and paid tribute to the dead.

Out of the exercises at Charleston the general observance of Memorial Day developed.

MASSSES FOR POPE ASKED BY BONZANO

Official Announcement of the Pontiff's Death Sent
Throughout Country.

More than 100 letters have been forwarded by Archbishop Bonzano, apostolic delegate to this country, requesting the various Catholic archbishops and bishops to conduct special services for the repose of the soul of the late Pope Pius X. These letters also contained an official announcement from the highest dignitary of the church in the United States of the death of His Holiness.

Complying with these requests, Catholic churches throughout the country are making preparations for the celebration of solemn high masses, which on account of the absence of many of the priests from their respective dioceses will continue for some weeks to come. The official period of mourning for such occasions is thirty days, but it is the custom of the church to celebrate as soon as possible, these special services.

Mr. Lee, pastor of St. Matthew's Church, Rhode Island avenue and Connecticut avenue northwest, has invited Archbishop Bonzano to be the celebrant of a mass to be sung for the Pope Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock, and an announcement has been made that the Archbishop will accept the invitation. The Father Walter Elliott, rector of the Apostolic Mission House, at Brookland, will preach the sermon. Invitations have been extended to the members of the Diplomatic Corps, and it is anticipated that a large number of "official" Washingtonians will attend.

Mr. William T. Russell celebrated a special mass for the Pope at St. Patrick's Church, Tenth and G streets northwest, yesterday morning. Especially selected hymns were sung by the choir of that church. Virtually the whole interior of the church was draped in black.

Monoplane Falls 1,000 Feet; Aviator Living

MINNEOLA, N. Y., Aug. 22.—Albert Filieux, of New York city, fell 1,000 feet in his monoplane to the Hempstead aviation field and escaped with his life. He was badly bruised and lacerated, but surgeons at the Nassau Hospital said that he was suffering chiefly from shock and that they thought he would live.

Filieux fell while circling the loop. He had completed the circle and the nose of his aeroplane was pointed straight for the earth, preparatory to making a "loop-the-loop" glide, when his engine went dead. The machine fell like a plummet.

Father Drowns Falling to Save Three Daughters

DAVENPORT, Iowa, Aug. 22.—Four persons, residents of Le Claire, Iowa, a father and three daughters, were drowned in the Mississippi river, near Le Claire, a village about twelve miles from this city, today. The father lost his life in an attempt to rescue his daughters. The drowned are Thomas Thomas, fifty-six; Dorothy, twenty-one; Elizabeth, seventeen, and Katherine, eleven.

Roosevelt Withdraws Support From Hinman

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Following a conference with Progressive leaders, Colonel Roosevelt has withdrawn his endorsement of H. D. Hinman for governor of the State of New York. The committee's choice for head of the ticket now lies between "Progressive" Ed Davenport, of Oneida county, and William H. Hotchkiss, the latter, it was learned tonight, is Colonel Roosevelt's favorite. He was State superintendent of insurance under Governor Hughes, and sought the Progressive nomination in the convention that chose Oscar Strauss two years ago.
